INSIGHT PERFORMANCE RECOGNIZED AS TOP EMPLOYER

HR and employee benefits consulting firm cited by Boston Business Journal

Dedham, Mass, July 19, 2017– Insight Performance, the fastest growing human resources and employee benefits consulting firm in New England, was recently recognized as a 2017 Best Places to Work in Massachusetts by the Boston Business Journal. The company, with offices in Dedham and Beverly, Mass., placed fifth in the extra small company category.

This is the second consecutive year that Insight Performance was cited by the Journal.

“It is an honor to be recognized again by the Boston Business Journal as one of the Best Places to Work in Massachusetts,” said Mike Ward, president of Insight Performance. “We are thrilled to be selected for this prestigious award along with many other outstanding Massachusetts companies.”

In addition to the recognition by the Boston Business Journal, Insight has won 16 awards in the past six years, including local and national recognition as an Employer of Choice.

Insight’s professional services team provides numerous solutions to complicated issues, including compliance, compensation and reward strategies, benefits, employee relations and communications, employee management development, strategic consulting, performance management, recruiting, and more.
